

DE MARINIS HELD ON MANY CHARGES

Incidents in Past Life of Prisoner Are Revealed in Court.

HE AGAIN SHOUTS DENIALS

Involved by the Informer Because of Personal Malice.

Viterbo, Italy, April 4.—The jury in the Camorra trial listened to-day to the interrogation and defense of Giuseppe De Marinis, who is charged with having planned the murders of Gennaro Cuocolo and his wife, Maria. De Marinis has been frequently arrested in Naples, the accusations against him including robbery, assault and murder, and he has served brief sentences of imprisonment. The Camorrist was not in good voice to-day, but he shouted his denials with considerable vehemence. He denied any part in the assassinations, and asserted that he had been involved in the revelations of the informer, Gennaro Abbate-maggio, because of the latter's personal spite. He had discharged Abbate-maggio from his employ, he said.

In forcing the chain of evidence against the thirty-six Camorrist, the carabinieri claimed to have found in De Marinis's house a postal card addressed to him by Luigi Arena, and asking for the death of Cuocolo because he had betrayed the writer to the authorities. In telling the story of the murders, Abbate-maggio had said that such a postal card had been written, and that immediately upon its receipt De Marinis the assassinations were planned.

The informer also said that De Marinis took possession of Cuocolo's ring for the purpose of sending it to Arena, who was in prison, as evidence that he had been avenged. Subsequently, the carabinieri claimed to have found the ring at the home of a woman friend of De Marinis.

Did Not Receive Ring.

Replying to questions by President Bianchi, De Marinis admitted that he never written him. He could not recall ever having met the man. He denied that he had received the ring supposed to have been taken from the hand of the dead man. As for the Cuocolos, he did not know either of them. At the time of their deaths he was in Naples. De Marinis admitted that he was a usurer, but declared that he was innocent of the crimes charged. Abbate-maggio, in involving him, was satisfying a personal grudge, he said. This he explained as follows:

"Abbate-maggio was for a time my stable boy, receiving from me $15 a month. He proved a very bad young man. He stole a gold chain from my porter, assaulted the porter's sister and bit my coachman, drawing blood. When I heard of his foul deeds I dismissed him from my employ, saying: 'Tell that fellow never come in my presence again; otherwise I will cripple him with a club.' This was the cause of Abbate-maggio's rancor, leading to the present attempt at a terrible revenge."

LAST RITES PERFORMED FOR MARY LEE FENDALL

Whom Thackeray Once Declared to Be Most Brilliant Woman in America.

Washington, April 4.—Funeral services for Mary Lee Fendall, whom Thackeray once pronounced to be "the most brilliant woman in America," took place at the family residence, 1319 New Hampshire Avenue, Northwest, last Saturday. The interment was made later in Alexandria, where other members of her family are buried.

Fendall was a great-niece of "Light Horse" Harry Lee, of Revolutionary fame, and the daughter of Philip Richard Fendall, jurist and writer. She was regarded as a beauty and a great belle many years ago. She was known for her wit as well as her beauty. When Thackeray was visiting this country he was pressed by Miss Fendall, and later paid her the compliment quoted.

Noted for Wit and Beauty.

At an early age Miss Fendall, through the death of her mother, became the head of her father's household.

At that time the Fendall home occupied the site of the present Fendall building, at the corner of D Street and John Marshall Place, and was the scene of many brilliant entertainments. Henry Clay, Daniel Webster and Jefferson Davis among the frequent visitors at the Fendalls. It was in this house that Robert E. Lee, then a lieutenant-colonel in the United States Army, is said to have declared that he hoped Virginia would not secede, but that if she did secede his first allegiance would be to the State.

Miss Fendall's death is regretted by a large circle of friends. Her loyalty to her family and friends, the simplicity of her life, and her many acts of charity in Washington are recalled as characteristics which won for her the love and admiration of many.

Enables an ordinary cook to make extraordinarily good "goodies."

Baking Powder has more to do with successful housekeeping than most people suspect.

If you are minus good cooking, add GOOD LUCK to your grocery list.

At your grocery store.

The Southern Manufacturing Co.
RICHMOND, VA.

Dr. Lyon's PERFECT Tooth Powder

Used by people of refinement in every part of the world where the use of the tooth-brush is known, for Almost Half a Century.

HOLLADAY WINS TRIANGULAR FIGHT

Nominated for Mayor of Suffolk. Good Roads Meeting at Branchville.

Suffolk, Va., April 4.—At the Democratic municipal primary here to-day, Joseph E. R. Holladay was nominated for Mayor in a triangular fight by a plurality of 55. His opponents were Walter B. Ferguson and Daniel N. Farnell. Eight Councilmen were chosen. Only three of them are members of the present board.

Several hundred people attended a good roads meeting at Branchville, Southampton county, to-day. The principal addresses were by Governor Mann, of Virginia, and John Schrell, of Frankfort, Ky. Mr. Schrell, president of the Virginia Good Roads Association, made the address of welcome. Various political speeches were made to-night.

BRIDE WILL BE NEAR AS HE STUDIES AT HARVARD

Young Joseph H. Auchincloss and Miss Stanton Can't Wait to Wed After He Graduates.

New York, April 4.—When Miss Priscilla D. Stanton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis L. Stanton, of 29 West Forty-ninth Street, becomes the wife of Joseph H. Auchincloss, of 27 West Fifty-third Street, on April 19, she will take up her residence in Boston to remain there until her husband finishes his studies at Harvard.

When the pair obtained a marriage license in the City Hall yesterday the bride gave her age as twenty-two. Auchincloss, who is twenty-four, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Auchincloss. He is a student in the Harvard law school, and expects to be graduated in June.

While a wedding at a later date had been planned, the young people decided that they would wait until he finished school, and his bride-elect insisted on being nearby to lend a helping hand until the final examinations. Then Auchincloss will bring his wife to this city, where he expects to practice.

ONE NEGRO KILLS ANOTHER.

Shot Fired at Close Range—Verdict of Justifiable Homicide.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Emporia, Va., April 4.—Richard Adkins shot and instantly killed James Easter at an early hour this morning. Both parties have homes seven miles southwest from Emporia, and are negroes.

Adkins slew the dead negro with a charge of birdshot fired at close range, the load having lodged in the left chest, just above the heart. The wounded man lived thirty minutes after being shot.

The cause of the shooting is said to have been the shooting of the father-in-law to kill Adkins, on account of a debt due him by his slayer. The evidence adduced before Coroner Lofton at the inquest was to the effect that Easter had on two occasions tried to kill Adkins. The coroner's jury brought in a verdict of justifiable homicide.

Willis Manning, an aged colored man, was found dead on the Southern Railroad, five miles east of Emporia this morning.

When last seen alive yesterday afternoon he was sitting on a crosstie near the spot where his corpse lay. The body was found a half-pint bottle of whiskey, half of which had been removed.

Dr. Lucien Lofton, coroner of Greensville county, decided the man came to his death as the result of acute alcoholism and freezing.

FAILS TO PROVE CHARGES

No Case Made Out Against Bureau of Statistics in Lawsuit.

Washington, April 4.—Charges that the Bureau of Statistics has exaggerated its reports of exports from the United States, and that it has used irregular methods to misrepresent the volume of American trade, made before the Pan-American conference in Washington last February, by Theodore T. Lowe, of New York, were generally dismissed to-day, when Secretary Nagel approved of the report of an investigation made by Census Director D. Durand.

Mr. Lowe presented to support his charges an affidavit by Charles S. Price, Jr., a former employee of the bureau. Director Durand reported that no case has been made against the bureau, and will serve a large amount of the country, as a vast amount of trade enters the city from over this bridge.

Contract for New Bridge. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Danville, Va., April 4.—At a called meeting of the City Council held here this afternoon the contract for the erection of a twenty-foot, reinforced concrete bridge was awarded to Weldon N. C. contractor, whose bid was $3,510. The contract calls for the completion of the bridge before October 1. The bridge will take the place of old Union Street wooden bridge, and will serve a large section of the county, as a vast amount of trade enters the city from over this bridge.

Contract for New Bridge. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Danville, Va., April 4.—At a called meeting of the City Council held here this afternoon the contract for the erection of a twenty-foot, reinforced concrete bridge was awarded to Weldon N. C. contractor, whose bid was $3,510. The contract calls for the completion of the bridge before October 1. The bridge will take the place of old Union Street wooden bridge, and will serve a large section of the county, as a vast amount of trade enters the city from over this bridge.

Contract for New Bridge. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Danville, Va., April 4.—At a called meeting of the City Council held here this afternoon the contract for the erection of a twenty-foot, reinforced concrete bridge was awarded to Weldon N. C. contractor, whose bid was $3,510. The contract calls for the completion of the bridge before October 1. The bridge will take the place of old Union Street wooden bridge, and will serve a large section of the county, as a vast amount of trade enters the city from over this bridge.

Contract for New Bridge. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Danville, Va., April 4.—At a called meeting of the City Council held here this afternoon the contract for the erection of a twenty-foot, reinforced concrete bridge was awarded to Weldon N. C. contractor, whose bid was $3,510. The contract calls for the completion of the bridge before October 1. The bridge will take the place of old Union Street wooden bridge, and will serve a large section of the county, as a vast amount of trade enters the city from over this bridge.

Contract for New Bridge. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Danville, Va., April 4.—At a called meeting of the City Council held here this afternoon the contract for the erection of a twenty-foot, reinforced concrete bridge was awarded to Weldon N. C. contractor, whose bid was $3,510. The contract calls for the completion of the bridge before October 1. The bridge will take the place of old Union Street wooden bridge, and will serve a large section of the county, as a vast amount of trade enters the city from over this bridge.

FINLEY OR HIBBEN TO HEAD PRINCETON

Trustees' Committee Said to Have Eliminated All Other Possible Candidates for Place. Decision Is Due To-Day.

New York, April 4.—The presidency of Princeton University lies between President John H. Finley, of City College, and Professor John C. Hibben, of the chair of logic at Princeton, according to sources of information close to members of the Princeton board of trustees.

The special committee of the trustees appointed to nominate a president is expected to reach a decision between the two at a special meeting at 11 o'clock to-morrow morning at Princeton. This committee is composed of John L. Cadwalader, of this city, chairman; Cleveland H. Dodge, Rev. Melancthon W. Jacobus, D. D., of Hartford; Cyrus H. McCormick, of Chicago; Rev. James Taylor, D. D., of Trenton; and Moses Taylor, D. D., of Princeton. The most prominent members of the Princeton board. They have not the authority to elect a president, but only to make a nomination. Princeton trustees will vote on the recommendation of the committee to-day.

Mr. Cadwalader's committee has been actively looking for a successor to Professor Woodrow Wilson for six months or more. Many names have been considered, and a process of elimination has been going on steadily, until a point has now been reached where a considerable list has been narrowed down to the men named, with the chances said to be slightly in favor of Dr. Finley.

Among the names which the committee has considered are President Benjamin Ide Wheeler, of the University of California; formerly of Cornell University; Harry Augustus Garfield, of Williams College, and son of President Garfield; President Henry Fairfield Osborn, of the American Museum of Natural History; Professor Henry B. Fine, of Princeton; Dean Andrew D. White, of the Princeton Graduate School; Professor Henry Van Dyke, of Princeton; and Drs. Finley and Hibben. Beginning with this group of names before them, it was said yesterday, the committee undertook a process of elimination. When it leaked out that President Wheeler's name was before the committee, and an effort was made to be made to sound him as to whether he would be likely to accept, the University of California suddenly raised his salary by $2,000 a year. The Princeton committee decided at once that it would not meet this, and Dr. Wheeler was dropped from further discussion. One after another was further discussed, and the aptitude of each for the work needed immediately at Princeton, and the chances of his willingness to come, were debated by the committee.

For various reasons every name was dropped, until only four were left, and over these the committee has worked for weeks. It was said yesterday, to pick the man Princeton most needs at present. These four were said to have been Dean Fine, Dean West and Drs. Finley and Hibben.

Some members of the committee expressed the fear that both Dean West and Dean Fine had been too close to the recent controversy at Princeton over the Graduate School to unite the various factions at the university, as the new president is expected, among other things, to knit all the various agencies of the university together. Doubt was also expressed as to whether either would accept, and some close to Dean West said he would positively refuse the office, as he wants time to carry out his plan of reorganizing the Graduate School plans. This left only Dr. Finley and Dr. Hibben. The latter has many friends among the trustees and faculty, who are said to be supporting him with great earnestness. Professor Hibben is a Princeton man, class of '82. He has been professor of logic since 1905.

It was learned yesterday that one compelling influence had been at work in the committee appointed to nominate a president. This was a desire to bring into leadership at Princeton a man of great tact. The committee is said to have agreed practically that Princeton does not need an educator at this time nearly so much as it needs an administrator of uncommon ability, with sufficient diplomacy to bring together factions at the university.

No one could be found here last night who would venture an opinion as to whether President Finley would go to Princeton to do so, but it was said that he had been approached by friends of the Princeton trustees, and on their report to the members of the committee he has never been lost sight of. Dean Andrew D. White, who is now in France, has been lecturing at the Sorbonne on the early influence of the French on American affairs, as the appointee of the president of Harvard University. He will return next month.

Dr. Finley is in his forty-eighth year. He is not a Princeton man, but was professor of politics there from 1900 to 1903, when he became president of the City College. At Princeton he became the warm friend of Ex-President Cleveland, and later his biographer. Previous to his connection with Princeton he was secretary of the State Charles Aid Association, of this city; president of the Knox College, and editor of Harper's Weekly and McClure's Magazine. He is a doctor of philosophy of Johns Hopkins University. The degree of doctor of laws was conferred on him by the University of Wisconsin.

News of South Richmond

South Richmond Bureau. The Times-Dispatch. 1029 Hull Street. Phone Madison 115. Swansboro Bureau. Swansboro Furniture Co.

The burning out of a fuse on a southbound Hull Street car at Twelfth Street yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock caused a half-hour blockage of street car traffic on that track. The 4 o'clock Petersburg car, which was immediately behind the lame car, suffered most, and the crew worked nobly to help the Hull Street crew get their car in running order.

A crowd quickly assembled and stood around in the rain offering all kinds of good-natured advice to the car men as the latter endeavored to persuade the lame duck to move. A fire blaze on the roof of the car where the fuse burned out was extinguished without trouble, and the car was finally repaired when the trolley was taken off the wire and a man climbing to the roof proceeded to mend the trouble with a pair of pliers. Before the car was again in running order, the trolley of the delayed Petersburg car had attempted the experiment of pushing the Hull Street car before the larger car, but this failed to work.

New Concern Chartered. A charter was yesterday granted by the Corporation Commission to Bowen, Vaden & Utz (Inc.) for the purpose of manufacturing leather, harness, etc., with a maximum capital of $250,000.

The officers and directors of the new corporation are all well known Southsiders: A. Bowen, Clarence Vaden and John E. Utz.

The new corporation is the successor to A. D. Shotwell & Company, one of the oldest and largest firms of the Southside.

Another Peddling Case. During the April term of the Chesterfield county Circuit Court, which will convene at the courthouse next Monday, the case of alleged illegal peddling against Sam Straus, the peddler, is coming on. This case on account of the sensational charges advanced in the first hearing before Magistrate Robinson, in the Oak Grove case, by Kirk Mathews, counsel for the defendant, against Officer Jerrell, the Chesterfield county constable who worked up the case. Mr. Mathews has promised to press his charges when the case is called before Judge Watson in the county court, and Officer Jerrell's friends state that he will be ready with a refutation of the charges at the proper moment.

The allegations made against Officer Jerrell are of a serious nature, the defending attorney having openly asserted in court that the officer had worked up the case for the sake of his half of the fine to be imposed, and had worked it up by doubtful methods. The hearing of this case will probably be a spicy one.

Regular April Term. The regular April term of the Hustings Court, Part 2, will convene next Monday morning, when the grand jury will be summoned to draw up preliminary indictments. This term promises to be a heavy one, as the most criminal cases have been scheduled for trial. H. Wells was engaged yesterday, and will be engaged the rest of this week, in cleaning up of loose ends in several criminal cases.

It is stated on the authority of one of the attorneys in the case that the $1,000 suit for recovery of profits brought by the Ohio Steam Laundry Machinery Company against the Allan Building Co., of this city, concerning which the jury failed to agree last week, will be compromised before retrial.

The suit, which developed through the refusal of the Allan & Hutchinson Building Co. to purchase machinery ordered from the Ohio company, and a warm contest when brought to trial, the jury being unable to agree. The evidence taking and the arguments stretched over two days in the Hustings Court, Part 2.

Old Tavern to Go. It has been stated by a member of the Valentine estate, the owners of the "Old Tavern" property on Hull Street between Eleventh and Twelfth, that the historic structure will positively be torn down in the near future. Whether the work will be done immediately or in several months depends upon the demand for stores of the size these are to be. The old landmark has been condemned by Inspector Beck as a fire hazard, and if the owners do not tear it down and rebuild on the same valuable plot will be without revenue to them.

A prominent real estate operator of South Richmond, in discussing realty values on this side of the river, said yesterday he believed the demand for such stores was increasing in the Southside to justify such a move on the part of the owners of the Old Tavern. Little building will be done, however, it is believed, until the prohibitive values placed just now on Southside property are lowered somewhat.

In Police Court. C. H. Awendroth, charged with refusing to settle the board bill he owes W. T. Williams, was sent to jail for thirty days yesterday morning by Justice Matthews in Police Court, Part 2.

Ernest Wingfield, colored, fined $10 for resisting arrest and being drunk and disorderly. He did not have the price, so he went to jail.

Jane Avery, colored, was fined $5 and costs for cursing and abusing Josephine Cook, colored. She departed for the jail in default of payment of the fine.

Taley Brody, colored, was fined $10 and costs for lighting on the street. His pocket was empty, so he went to jail also. James Nunnally was discharged on the same charge.

A half-dozen misdemeanor warrants were issued yesterday by Magistrate Cheatham in the Oak Grove District. None of them were for serious offenses.

Death of an Infant. Oscar Morton McGee, infant son of J. Harvey McGee, of 800 Everett Street, died yesterday evening about 7 o'clock in the home of his parents after an illness of three weeks. The arrangements for the funeral have not yet been completed.

The funeral of the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wise, who died

As the Governor of North Carolina said to the Governor of South Carolina:

"Got any STUD Tobacco for makin's?"

If you haven't, dig for a nick' now and play it over the counter of the nearest smoke shop.

STUD is the glad-hand, come-again smoke. It's a friend-maker. You can't help liking it.

For STUD is pure tobacco, grown in the rich Piedmont Country, clean and fi grant. It's equally good pipe smokin' and in cigarettes it won't stain your fingers any more than cigars, because it's real tobacco, without dope.

5¢ does it. Don't be odd.

Every time you see a white horse buy a bag of Stud.

POSSE ARRESTS GUNTER BROTHERS

Men Who Fired on Officers Taken in Their Mountain Home.

Asheville, N. C., April 4.—After an all-night search in a downpour of rain through the mountains of Cock county, Tenn., near the North Carolina boundary, Sheriff W. M. Buckner, of Madison county, with a posse of deputies, early this morning surprised Riley and Elisha Gunter while they were still in bed, arrested and took the two men to the county seat. These are the men who were taking the two men wanted. Taken completely by surprise they offered no resistance, although beside them in the bed were two Winchester rifles.

The search took the sheriff's posse over almost impassable roads, and it was only after they had searched a number of houses that in the early morning they found the cabin of Richard Gunter, one of the nine Gunter brothers. The people of the house, just arising when the officers surrounded the cabin and Sheriff Buckner knocked open the door, at the same time leveling two revolvers at a bed upon which were resting the two men wanted. Taken completely by surprise they offered no resistance, although beside them in the bed were two Winchester rifles.

A careful search failed to locate the other two brothers who were rescued Sunday. This prisoners were taken to Marshall. The two officers who were shot are recovering.

SOLD TO CHICAGO FIRM. Amherst to Issue $135,000 Road Bonds. School Patrons Meet.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Amherst, Va., April 4.—The Board of Supervisors of Amherst county met here yesterday to open bids for the $135,000 of road bonds recently issued. The bonds were sold to a Chicago firm at 5 per cent, and $200 bonus. The bonds will bear interest from March 1, 1911, and the purchase is to pay for the printing of the bonds. Not a large number of bids were received, and all sent in were rejected, the one accepted having been made to the board yesterday.

The meeting of the patrons and teachers of the Amherst public school called for last night, was not largely attended on account of the rain. Among those present were Superintendent E. C. Campbell and Senator A. E. Strode. Plans for the improvement of the school were discussed, but nothing definite was decided upon.

John J. Gillispie, of Pennsylvania, has purchased of W. H. Campbell, at $2,000, a portion of his farm near the town of Amherst. Mr. Gillispie expects to move to this county at an early date.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Oak Grove Baptist Church will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the church. The collection will be for home missions.

But few people ventured out last night in the bad weather to hear the sermon of the Rev. Mr. Bowen, of Barton Heights, delivered in the Oak Grove Baptist Church in the special services being conducted there this week. A minister from Chester will fill the pulpit in that church to-night.

Liberty Council Junior Order of United American Mechanics, held its regular weekly meeting last night at 8 o'clock in Cersley's Hall, corner of Hull and Crompton Streets, Swansboro.

Stuart Lodge, Independent Order of Odd-Fellows, met last night at 8 o'clock in the Odd-Fellows' Hall, corner of Eighth and Hull Streets.

Lily Council, Daughters of Liberty, met last night at 8 o'clock in their regular weekly meeting in Toney's Hall, corner of Eleventh and Hull Streets.

The Rev. J. T. Haley has called a mass-meeting of the members of the Stockton Street Baptist Church for to-night at 8 o'clock in the church. Liberty Council Junior Order of United American Mechanics, held its regular weekly meeting last night at 8 o'clock in Cersley's Hall, corner of Hull and Crompton Streets, Swansboro.

Stuart Lodge, Independent Order of Odd-Fellows, met last night at 8 o'clock in the Odd-Fellows' Hall, corner of Eighth and Hull Streets.

Lily Council, Daughters of Liberty, met last night at 8 o'clock in their regular weekly meeting in Toney's Hall, corner of Eleventh and Hull Streets.

The Rev. J. T. Haley has called a mass-meeting of the members of the Stockton Street Baptist Church for to-night at 8 o'clock in the church. Liberty Council Junior Order of United American Mechanics, held its regular weekly meeting last night at 8 o'clock in Cersley's Hall, corner of Hull and Crompton Streets, Swansboro.

Stuart Lodge, Independent Order of Odd-Fellows, met last night at 8 o'clock in the Odd-Fellows' Hall, corner of Eighth and Hull Streets.

Lily Council, Daughters of Liberty, met last night at 8 o'clock in their regular weekly meeting in Toney's Hall, corner of Eleventh and Hull Streets.

The Rev. J. T. Haley has called a mass-meeting of the members of the Stockton Street Baptist Church for to-night at 8 o'clock in the church. Liberty Council Junior Order of United American Mechanics, held its regular weekly meeting last night at 8 o'clock in Cersley's Hall, corner of Hull and Crompton Streets, Swansboro.

THOUSANDS SEE RAID BY POLICE

Streets Blocked in Norfolk While Officers Search Alleged Gambling House.

Norfolk, Va., April 4.—Eleven detectives and patrolmen, headed by Sergeants Mayo and Knapp, raided an alleged gambling house at 8 Granby Street, shortly before 11 o'clock to-night. The raid was the most spectacular ever seen in Norfolk, and it required four trips of the patrol wagon to carry the eleven men found in the place and the paraphernalia which, it is charged, was used for gambling purposes.

The police tried to open the doors of the place to gain an entrance, and 2,000 people lined the streets to see the prisoners brought out. Extra police had to open the back so that street cars could pass. Poker tables, keno and roulette outfits, chips and various paraphernalia were loaded into the wagon and carried to police headquarters.

The place was the headquarters of the "Hankins" Pleasure Club, organized for the purpose of "haunting, fishing and racing." On the door of one of the rooms was posted a rule which read: "Pool, checks and other honest games may be played, but any members found violating the State or city laws will be expelled from the club."

The officers of the club are Charles Dant, president; Nicholas Albano, vice-president, and William Lintz, secretary and treasurer.

CALL FOR NEGRO SOLDIERS. Twenty-fourth Infantry Regiment to Be Recruited to Full Strength.

Atlanta, Ga., April 4.—The Twenty-fourth Infantry Regiment, composed entirely of negroes, is to be recruited to full war strength before sailing for the Philippines some time next month. Instructions came to the local recruiting station to-day from the War Department to make every effort to obtain negro recruits for this regiment.

This is the first time in three years that the department has called for negro recruits for the army.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of J. C. Watson.

W. E. Tanner. John F. Tanner. PAINTS, STAINS, BRUSHES

Tanner Paint & Oil Co. THE ORIGINALS 1419 East Main Street

Pones Madison 399 and 1797

The RED Car Mon. 780 Day Only Always Ready

"ASK MR. BOWMAN" VIRGINIA TAXI SERVICE CO.

Philadelphia, Pa., April 4.—The third inter-league game between the Philadelphia Nationals and Philadelphia Americans, scheduled for to-day, was called off on account of rain.

Asheville, N. C., April 4.—The game scheduled here to-day between the two divisions of the Brooklyn "Superbas" was canceled on account of wet grounds. The entire squad leaves to-night for Danville, Va., where they play to-morrow.

Durham, N. C., April 4.—Wake Forest College, 2; Davidson College, 3.